1. About this qualification

The AIM Qualifications Level 1 Award in Protective Behaviours Training offers activities to promote the right of everyone to feel safe all the time. The aim of the qualification is to introduce participants to the process of Protective Behaviours and to show how Protective Behaviours can be used to enhance working practice and life beyond the workplace. The course will enable participants to use Protective Behaviours for themselves and with others, in both their personal lives and working practice. It will enhance learner's ability to look after themselves and others.

Objectives of the qualification

This qualification can be used flexibly to meet learner needs. Depending on the context of the learning and the needs of each individual learner, the qualification can:

- prepare individuals to progress to a qualification in the same subject area but at a higher level or requiring more specific knowledge, skills and understanding;
- prepare learners for employment;
- support a role in the workplace;
- encourage engagement in learning.

This qualification has been designed to enable learners to:

- know the two themes of Protective Behaviours;
- explore the Protective Behaviours approach to problem solving;
- recognise the influence of unwritten rules on individual practice and workplace culture;
- understand the use of safe, empowering language for changing attitudes;
- It is a requirement that assessment of this qualification is conducted in English.

The AIM Qualifications Level 1 Award in Protective Behaviours Training is accredited by Ofqual.

Guided Learning Hours (GLH)

Guided Learning Hours are defined as the number of hours of supervised or directed study time required for a unit or a qualification. Some learners will be able to achieve units and qualifications in a shorter time than indicated. Others, for example those with additional support requirements, may need longer.

Total Qualification Time (TQT)

Total qualification time is defined as the number of guided learning hours (GLH) plus the time taken by the learner for private study or work experience.

Guided learning hours and total qualification time for this qualification is:

GLH: 50 hours

TQT: 60 hours

2. Learner requirements

Entry requirements

There are no entry requirements.

Minimum age

The minimum age for access to this qualification is 14 years.

Reasonable Adjustment and Special Considerations

Assessment within the AIM Qualifications Level 1 Award in Protective Behaviours Training qualification is designed to be accessible and inclusive. The assessment methodology is appropriate and rigorous for individuals or groups of learners.

If you have learners with particular needs you should refer to the Reasonable Adjustment and Special Considerations Policy, available from AIM Qualifications. This gives clear guidance on the reasonable adjustments and arrangements that can be made to take account of disability or learning difficulty without compromising the achievement of the assessment criteria.

3. Achieving the qualification

Rules of Combination

Centres are responsible for ensuring that learners are able to achieve the qualification for which they are aiming. Centres must ensure that the following rules of combination that apply to each qualification are met.

To be awarded the AIM Qualifications Level 1 Award in Protective Behaviours Training, learners must achieve 6 credits.

Unit achievement

All of the assessment criteria in a unit must be met before the unit is deemed to be achieved. The unit achievement is not graded: units are either achieved or not achieved.

Recording achievement

You must record the learner's achievement of each unit on an appropriate form(s). You should record the learner's achievement against the specific units assessment criteria evidenced by the task.
